Dear Mr Casey,

I should like to thank you on behalf of my colleagues for joining us for lunch yesterday. From our point of view it proved to be a most informative session, and we trust that from yours it was not too much of an interrogation!

Yours Sincerely,

Chris Redman.

P.S. I should like at some time to follow up Bob Ajemian's request for your assistance in putting together an article on the CIA and where it is headed under your leadership. Is that a possibility?
